| 11 | United States of America, Plaintiff, | No. CR-22-00889-PHX-MTL |
| 12 | VS. | D. C J 42 |
| 13 | James W. Clark, | Defendant's Motion to Self-Surrender |
| 14 | Defendant. | Motion to Sen-Surrender |
| 15 | | |
| 16 | Mr. Clark moves the Court to allow him to self-surrender if it imposes an | |
| 17 | incarceration sentence. He is eligible for voluntary surrender as he has complied | |
| 18 | with all release conditions and is not a flight risk or danger. Mr. Clark resides | |
| 19 | in Boston, and it is the BOP's policy is to incarcerate a defendant within 500 | |
| 20 | miles of their residence, so allowing self-surrender at either the U.S. Marshal's | |
| 21 | Office, Boston or the facility he is designated to, would make best use of | |
| 22 | judicial resources. Assistant U.S. Attorney Tanya Senanayake does not object | |
| 23 | to Mr. Clark's self-surrender. | |
| 24 | Respectfully submitted: March 5, 2024. | |
